Job Interview & Future Business Leader

Job Interview and Future Business Leader Credentials both have a prejudged component. However, competitors MUST bring a copy of credentials with them to the interview.

Nametags & Bulletin Boards

All nametag submissions (2 copies) should be submitted ready to be worn. Bulletin boards must be displayed and will be judged in an upright/standing position...not lying flat on the table.

Prejudged Information

Skills Events Request Form for Computer Applications, Database Design & Applications, Spreadsheet applications, and Word Processing (one form per chapter) must be e-mailed to Connie Witt, State Adviser by January 13, 2023 to connie.witt@education.ky.gov. This is a request for tests only. Competitor names are not submitted at this time.

The test packets for these events will be emailed to the Test Administrators the week of JANUARY 16, 2023. The completed tests must be submitted electronically by FEBRUARY 10. Local chapter advisers are responsible for submitting the test administrator's name and email to connie.witt@education.ky.gov by JANUARY 13, 2023. Do not wait until the last few days to administer the test. Weather related issues that many times cause schools to be closed during this time make it very difficult to get the tests completed. Extensions ARE NOT possible due to the time constraint in getting everything scored.

Any student who enters a Prejudged event must pay the registration fee whether or not they attend the conference in person. Also, any student who enters a Prejudged event can only enter a chapter event or one of the exceptions listed on the Kentucky Competitive Events Guide on Page 5.

Smith/Plock Scholarships

Please submit your state scholarship contributions to the address listed on the submission form by February 1, 2023. Members may compete in a state scholarship event only if the local chapter contributed a minimum $50 donation to the STATE scholarship fund. All chapters contributing to the State Scholarship Fund will be recognized at the State Leadership Conference.

Talent Show

*If a student enters the Talent Show event, they may now compete in any other event. We are moving the Talent Show to the afternoon to provide entertainment for the students. Please make sure that you complete the Talent Show form at the end of this memo and submit by February 10, 2023, to Kacey McCray, Region 6 President.

Regional Officer Candidates

Each chapter should consider running qualified candidates for Regional Offices. This is an important leadership aspect of the organization. The Regional Officer and adviser must attend the Summer Leadership Training Camp as well as other obligations. Those advisers who have a Regional President will be required to attend additional meetings and activities. Review carefully the Guidelines for Regional Officers and the Required Attendances for Regional Officers and Advisers. Regional President candidates and their advisers need to review the Required Attendances for State Officers and advisers, available at kyfbla.org. No campaigning of any kind may be done until after the candidate is approved at the Regional Conference. This applies to social media as well. Doing so will result in disqualification. Mail applications to Kacey McCray, Region 6 President by February 10, 2023. Individuals interested in becoming Regional Parliamentarian must also complete application requirements.

Campaign speeches must be submitted electronically to connie.witt@education.ky.gov one week prior to the regional conference. Any inappropriate deviation from this speech will result in disqualification of the candidate.

Candidates running for office should report to the registration desk by 8:30 a.m. accompanied by an adviser. Candidates must bring samples of all their campaign materials to this meeting. During this screening process, the candidates will be informed of their duties as well as receive other important information. Review carefully the Guidelines for Regional Officers. No campaigning is allowed outside the campaign booth area. At the Opening General Session each candidate will have two (2) minutes for the campaign speech. There will be no nomination speech or skit. Each candidate will have one table provided for them to set up campaign materials.

Voting Delegates

Each chapter is entitled to voting delegates based on membership. Delegate ribbons will be in each chapter's packet. Contact headquarters if yours are missing or short. These delegates will be seated prior to the election session to vote for Regional Officers. Delegates are as follows:

1-50 members=2 Voting Delegates 51-100 members=3 Voting Delegates 101+=4 Voting Delegates

Businessperson of the Year

This event recognizes outstanding business leaders from the private business sector throughout the state who have contributed to the success of Kentucky Future Business Leaders of America on the local level. Each chapter may enter one (1) person in the Local Chapter Businessperson of the Year event at the Regional Leadership Conference. Nominees must be members of the business community. Persons who are full-time employees of educational institutions or departments of education shall not be nominated for the award. Nominees must not have been named to this event at a previous FBLA Regional Leadership Conference. The entry form must be completed by the local chapter and received with each nominee's biographical sketch form by February 10. Criteria for selection of nominees at the local level should include: 2 years of participation in FBLA activities, promotion of FBLA through presentations and seminars, contribution to chapter projects and activities, and financial assistance to local and/or state chapter(s).

Code of Conduct

This form must be duplicated with a copy completed and signed by each person who attends the Regional FBLA Conference and by his/her parent or guardian. These may be kept on file in your school until needed and used for the State Leadership Conference, but please be sure everyone completes the forms and you have them with you the day of the regional conference. Regional Conference Regulations and the Code of Conduct should be read and understood by all who attend the Conference.

Dress Code for the Conference

This form must be duplicated with a copy completed and signed by each person who attends the Regional FBLA Conference and by his/her parent or guardian. Please BRING a signed copy of this form for each student. Participants will only be permitted to compete or to receive awards if dressed appropriately according to the Kentucky Dress Code.

THE PROPER ATTIRE GUIDELINES ARE INCLUDED IN THIS MEMO AND ON THE KENTUCKY FBLA WEBSITE. PLEASE MAKE SURE MEMBERS, ADVISERS, AND GUESTS WEAR THE PROPER ATTIRE. POINTS WILL BE DEDUCTED FROM COMPETITORS' SCORES FOR NON-COMPLIANCE!

Medical Release/Parent Permission Form

Please BRING a signed copy of this form for each student, adviser, and guest who attends the Conference. This form must be available in the event of a medical emergency.

Lunch

Lunch will NO longer be provided. Students have a variety of dining options, but Case Hall is the recommended location to send. NO outside food should be delivered! (Encourage each to bring $10 for lunch).

Door Prizes

Ten (10) door prizes of $20 will be drawn at the conclusion of opening session to those members present.

There will also be two (2) drawings for $100 each at the conclusion of the closing session. You must be present to win, and your chapter must be attending State Conference.

Conference Procedures

An adviser from each chapter should report to the Registration Desk upon arrival to collect the chapter's packet and to turn in scholarship credentials. Participants whose credentials are not turned in at the proper time may be disqualified.
